As the year 2021 draws to a close, the Business Standard awards would bring together the highest-achieving companies and their leaders together on one platform to share their success stories and future vision.

From CEO of the Year K B S Anand of Asian Paints, Shyam Srinivasan of Federal Bank conferred the Banker of the Year to Star PSU Gujarat Gas, and the new kid on the block and Start-up of the Year Freshworks, the list is as varied as it is inspiring.

How India Inc would navigate the post-Covid world would be the subject of inquiry for a panel discussion by the award winners. This would also include Vishal Bhola, managing director (MD) of Whirlpool of India and C Vijayakumar, chief executive officer and MD of HCL Technologies (HCL Tech). While Whirlpool was chosen the Star MNC of the Year, category. The company's Chairman and MD Yogesh Kothari would bring in his perspective on the challenges and the role ahead for SMEs in a post-pandemic scenario.

The Business Standard's awards would also honour A M Naik, group chairman of Larsen & Toubro, with the lifetime achievement award.

CBIC shouldn't need registration of MEIS transmitted online by DGFT

T N C RAJAGOPALAN

For registering the MEIS scrips issued on-line we are required to take a print out of MEIS and send it to the CHA and also incur some costs. Is there any way to register such MEIS scrips online? The CBEC had removed the requirement for pre-registration verification of the genuineness of MEIS/SEIS for the scrips transmitted directly from the DGFT portal to the Customs portal. However, the requirement of registration itself has not been withdrawn. So, what the CHAs do is to submit a copy of the print out of MEIS and seek registration. The Customs immediately register. That entails some costs. In my view, registration should not be necessary at all where MEIS is directly transmitted by the DGFT to the Customs, But, the CBIC has not issued that specific instruction.
